STARKE

Adhesive from Surfactant Industries

Surfactant Industries launched its premium Wood Adhesive "Starke" in the Srilankan Market at the 4th Sri Lanka Wood International Expo. The Exhibition was held at BMICH, Colombo, Sri Lanka from September 9 to September 11, 2016.

Starke, an Indian Wood Adhesive which is among the first in India to comply with the European EN 204/205 D3 Standards, received excellent response from the Sri Lankan Furniture Manufacturers. They approved the product instantly and now they wish to use the same on a regular basis.

Starke, which has excellent Water Resistance in comparison to Conventional White Wood adhesives, is already very popular in the Indian OEM Market among Furniture and Modular Kitchen Manufacturers and Exporters. The product has been developed in close association with Dr. Herbert Eck of Germany who is an author of more than 100 adhesive related patents.

Surfactant Industries, has a rich background of technical expertise in Chemical manufacturing for last 60 years.
